CHICAGO

Being an expert on improvements for the city of Chicago is a highly remunerative calling as indicated by a report to the council finance committee giving $97,704 as the sum which the city has paid to building, real estate, and legal experts in the last five weeks.

J. W. Deer, the popular president of the American Sewer and Drainage Construction Co., at 2816 N. Wash-tenaw avenue, is one of the progressive men of Chicago. Always interested in the city's welfare, he is a booster of its interests and is always at the fore front of every movement for bettering the condition of his fellow citizens.

S. P. Messinger has done much for Chicago in furnishing the people with a fine lot of first-class restaurants.

Louis J. Behan, the well known lawyer and popular master in chancery, is frequently mentioned for a place on the Superior Bench. Every one who knows him believes that he would make a fine judge.

Owen O'Malley, popular former county commissioner and leading cigar dealer at 137 North Clark street, is making a good record as commissioner of the Forest Preserve.
